

WHEAT HARVEST UNDERWAY HERE—Heavy rains have delayed the wheat harvest in Pettis County somewhat, but some farmers have been able to get combines through their softened fields. Dale Rhoads, Route 1, Smithton, transfers a load of wheat on to a truck Monday afternoon on the C. F. Jurries farm, Route 4, just north of Sedalia on Highway 65. Glenn McMullin, Beaman, and his helper, Rhoads, were combining the 37-acre field for Jurries. McMullin reported some difficulty in keeping his two combines, a 10-foot model and a 13-footer, from getting stuck. The Jurries wheat was Monon, a soft variety, making about 50 bushels to the acre.

Plot to Kidnap Khrushchev

'Kidnapers' Were to Bid For Prisoners' Release

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Swedish police have smashed a plot to kidnap Soviet Premier Khrushchev and hold him hostage for the release of political prisoners behind the Iron Curtain.

Police confirmed that at least one man, described only as a 30-year-old foreigner, was arrested Monday near Haga Castle, where the Soviet leader is staying during his five-day state visit.

Deep Mystery Surrounds Missing Trio

Rights Workers Not Heard From Since Sunday Night

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP)—Mystery deepened today in the strange disappearance of three young civil rights workers. They were last heard from Sunday night after paying a speeding fine in this east central Mississippi town.

The FBI and the Mississippi Highway Patrol pressed a search for the two white persons and a Negro, part of the first wave of summer volunteer seeking to reform this state politically.

Missing were Andy Goodman, 20, and Mickey Schwerner, 24, both of New York City. With them was James Cheney, 22, a Negro member of the Congress of Racial Equality from Meridian.

They came here Saturday after a week's orientation course for the Mississippi "Freedom Summer Project" in Oxford, Ohio. Other workers spread over the state during the weekend to launch voter registration drives and advise Negro citizens of their rights.

With Cheney at the wheel they drove to Philadelphia, reportedly to see the ruins of a Negro church that burned last week after armed whites broke up a church board meeting.

Late December Date For Gemini Flight

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The first manned Gemini space flight is now scheduled for about Christmastime this year.

Manned Spacecraft Center officials have been saying the two-man flight would be made "late this year" or "in the last quarter of the year."

At a news conference Monday, a center spokesman pinned it down to "late December."

The man reportedly confessed that he and several other men had planned to smash their way through the castle gates in a truck.

The newspaper Aftonbladet, which has close connections with the Swedish government, said the man in custody was a Hungarian. Police declined to confirm this.

There also was speculation that the plot was hatched by members of the Ustashi, a fanatic Croatian anti-Communist organization which fought for the Nazis during World War II.

The Ustashi reportedly has a strong membership in Sweden, which is haven for about 30,000 refugees from Communist countries.

Two weeks before Khrushchev's arrival in Sweden, the newspaper Expressen said the Ustashi had threatened openly to kill the Soviet leader.

"Khrushchev will die in Sweden," Expressen quoted a Ustashi leader as saying.

County police Supt. Aake Magnusson signed the charge sheet against the arrested man.

Magnusson described a report by a Stockholm newspaper that the plotters were armed with submachine guns as a "dreamed up story."

Attempt To Find Dog Which Bit Boy At Center

Sheriff Emmett Fairfax reported Monday afternoon that an attempt is being made to locate the owner of a small dog which bit a boy Saturday at the Catholic Community Center.

Fairfax said that the three-year-old son of Carter Bortz, Route 1, was bitten about 1 p.m. Saturday at the center, while attending a picnic.

The dog which was reported to have bitten the boy was said to have been small, light brown in color, and wearing a fancy collar.

An attempt is being made to find the owner of the dog to check for rabies possibilities so the boy will not have to undergo a series of painful injections. Any information concerning the dog should be reported to the Pettis County Sheriff's office.

Distortion Charges By Gov. Romney

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Gov. George Romney of Michigan charged today the federal government is distorting the nation's economy by promoting special economic advantages.

"We're getting this thing all fouled up, by permitting the federal government to get into areas it shouldn't get into," he said.

Some terrible economic problems are being created around the country, he added.

"Economically," Romney said, "what this country needs is a Theodore Roosevelt who will apply the same principles without fear or favor to regions and economic groups."

Romney told a Midwest Governors Conference on Industrial Development he was disturbed by the increasing tendency of businessmen to seek special federal help from Washington.

"I think this is wrong," he said, "just as it's wrong for labor to do the same thing."

He said when states try to pirate industries from each other it is "destructive of state government of the American society." He criticized the use of tax advantages, special inducements and other gimmicks to lure industry.

He said he was not opposed to the South's effort to attract industry with cheap labor, but said a strong region cannot be built that way. The only basis for a strong economy, he said, is for customers, workers and stockholders to participate equitably in the economy.

Veto Power By Goldwater On Platform

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater commands the largest single bloc of members thus far selected to the Republican Convention Platform Committee and may have a veto on any plank he opposes.

Party moderates and liberals who are fighting to prevent the Arizona from getting the GOP presidential nomination have been plugging for a strong platform statement on civil rights.

They want an endorsement of the legislation Congress is about to pass, and against which Goldwater voted in the Senate. Moreover, they are contending the GOP nominee must be pledged to enforcement of the bill's sweeping provisions.

Rep. Melvin R. Laird, R-Wis., chairman of the committee, said he would recommend a plank to put the party on record for "prompt and effective implementation" of the legislation which has had strong GOP support in Congress.

"I don't think this will cause any problem in the committee or in the convention itself," Laird said in an interview.

If a declaration of this nature is written into the platform, it apparently will be because Goldwater chooses to placate the moderates and does not choose to invite a convention battle over the platform before voting begins on the nomination.

Traffic Survey At 32nd, Limit; No Results, Yet

The Highway Department has advised Sedalia Mayor L. L. Studer that a traffic survey has been conducted at the six-way intersection at 32nd and South Limit but that the results have not been tabulated.

C. E. Klamm, district engineer, said he had not ruled out a traffic signal for the intersection and that results of the survey will be the determining factor.

Mayor Studer has been negotiating with the Highway Department for several months regarding installation of a traffic control device at the intersection, both for safety reasons and in the interest of easier access to South Limit from the roads and streets that join the avenue at 32nd Street.

"If the new traffic count meets the warrant for a signal as set out in the manual (On Uniform Traffic Control Devices), we will be happy to install the signal," Klamm said.

Lodge Quits Post

Gen. Taylor New Viet Nam Envoy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge has resigned as ambassador to embattled South Viet Nam, and President Johnson today named Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, the nation's top military chief, to succeed him.

The unprecedented appointment of Taylor indicated that Johnson has determined to intensify the war against Communist guerrillas in South Viet Nam.

Lodge To Wage War On Barry

Will Aid Scranton In Nomination Bid For Presidency

SAIGON, Viet Nam—(AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge, U. S. ambassador to South Viet Nam during the past 10 stormy months of its history, resigned from his post here today to take up the political cudgel against Barry Goldwater.

Lodge said in a prepared statement that he was quitting his post in Saigon to give all the help he could to Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton's bid to stop Republican nomination of Sen. Barry Goldwater for president.

President Johnson called a quickie news conference to announce the shift. He said he understood Lodge would be home this weekend.

The President announced that Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, now Army chief of staff, will succeed Taylor as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. He said he had had no recommendation from Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara as yet with respect to a successor to Wheeler in the Army post.

Notification was received from Lodge last Friday that he wanted to be released from the Saigon assignment as quickly as possible. Some informants said this speed took the administration by surprise. Insiders had heard earlier that Lodge was thinking of coming home in August.

In Saigon, Lodge made this statement: "I resigned as ambassador to Viet Nam because I believe it is my duty to do everything that I can to help Gov. Scranton win for president."

"I also have accepted an invitation to address the resolutions committee of the Republican party."

"I am deeply grateful for the many courtesies extended to my wife and me in Viet Nam and have enjoyed my service here. Truly it makes us sad to leave."

Some Congressmen Have Indicated

US Willing to Risk Asia War

WASHINGTON (AP)—Many Congress members indicated belief today that the administration has decided it is willing to risk war with Red China to prevent Communist forces from overrunning Southeast Asia.

Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., said for one he was apprehensive about "a general expansion of the war in Southeast Asia" but he added in an interview: "I think they (administration officials) have made up their minds to expand the war."

Aiken, a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said he hoped that if that decision is made it would be based on "an understanding with Russia that Russia will keep hands off."

"Maybe they can get away with it in Viet Nam and Laos if the Russians agree to stand back," Aiken said. "The President has to make the decision as to whether we have general war in Asia."

Although few others on Capitol Hill would comment publicly on the situation, Aiken's appraisal that a decision had been reached appeared to be shared by many others after a series of weekend rumblings—above and below the surface—in official circles.

One of these came Monday when Gen. Paul D. Harkins, retiring after more than two years as U.S. commander in South Viet Nam,

In effect, the President has created a new military-political high command to be based in Saigon, for U. Alexis Johnson, a veteran career diplomat and now a deputy undersecretary of state for political affairs, will also go to Viet Nam as deputy ambassador.

For the domestic political scene, and the Republican party in particular, Lodge's decision to return to the United States at this time had deep implications. He said in Saigon that he was quitting his post to give all the help he could to Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton's bid to stop Republican nomination of Sen. Barry Goldwater for president.

President Johnson called a quickie news conference to announce the shift. He said he understood Lodge would be home this weekend.

Stock Prices On Upward Movement

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Livestockmen can't put their fingers on the exact reason for it, but market meat prices are rising across the country.

Observers at the Kansas City stock yards reported stock prices have risen $2.50 to $3 a hundredweight in the last 2½ weeks, the highest jump since October, 1963.

Before the increase farmers were marketing at what they said were the lowest prices since 1957.

At Omaha, cattle prices last week registered the highest single gains since August, 1961. Fed steers were $1 to $2 higher with a top of $23-25. Heifers topped at $22.75.

From Salt Lake City came word that the first Idaho range lambs on the Ogden, Utah, market last week brought the highest price in eight years.

Despite Soviet Warning

Airliner Through Berlin Corridor

BERLIN (AP)—A Pan American World Airways jet from New York flew through the Berlin air corridor today, defying a warning from the Soviet Union it could not guarantee the plane's safety over East Germany.

In a protest note Monday to the United States the Soviet Union called the New York-Berlin service illegal and disclaimed responsibility for the consequences if it continued.

Pan Am refused to cancel the flight and the jet entered the 110-mile long center corridor on the last stage of the flight.

The aircraft touched down at Berlin's Tegel Airport at 1:27 p.m., 28 minutes ahead of schedule.

It left New York with 77 passengers, 10 of whom were booked through to Berlin. The plane made stops at Iceland and Scotland. None of the passengers had voiced any concern over the Soviet warning.

A Soviet note to the United States and Britain claimed the recently inaugurated flights were illegal because they had not been approved by the Communist East German regime.

A Pan American spokesman said the flights three times a week, which reach Berlin after stops at Keflavik, Iceland, and Prestwick, Scotland, will continue. Other flights are scheduled to depart Wednesday and Friday.

"Our position is that we have not been notified that these flights are unlawful and until we are, we will continue them," the spokesman said.

"We don't negotiate with the Soviet government, the State Department does. The State Department and the West Berlin government gave their approval and until the State Department withdraws its approval, we will continue to operate jet flights into Berlin."

State Department officials in Washington did not regard the Communist warning as ominous. They pointed out that the Soviets had given similar warnings in the past.

Charge Trio On Burglary, Stealing Raps

Three teenage Sedalia boys, two of them brothers, were charged with second degree burglary and stealing on state warrants filed late Monday afternoon in Magistrate Court by Prosecuting Attorney J. R. Fritz.

Donald G. Barklage, 18, and his 17-year-old brother, Teddy, both of 1213½ South Lamine, were charged with burglarizing the concession stand located at the Thunderbowl Speedway, a modified racing track southwest of Sedalia on Route B. The track is operated by Dan Doty, Jr. and Kenneth Emery.

The warrant alleges the Barklage brothers entered the concession stand on June 15, last Monday, and took a coffeemaker, three cases of soda pop and a box of popcorn.

Charged on a third warrant is Benny Keith Townsend, 17, Route 5, who is accused of breaking into the Trampoline Center located in the 1400 block of Liberty Park Blvd. The warrant charges Townsend with burglarizing the place on May 21, taking a radio, loud speaker and amplifier and two cases of soda pop. Paul Klover is proprietor of the establishment.

The Barklages and Townsend had been in police custody since Sunday and shortly before noon (Please turn to page 2, col. 3)

High Waters Lapping At Tracy, Mo.

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Water lapped at the awnings of a restaurant in the small community of Tracy today as the accumulation of recent rain continued to swell the Platte River.

Other streams in Northwest Missouri and Northeast Kansas were receding as the area got a respite from heavy rain.

Tracy, a town of 200, is 20 miles northwest of Kansas City and only a few miles from Leavenworth, Kan.

Its main entry route, Missouri Highway 92, was blocked east and west by high water. The Platte was expected to crest 7½ feet above bankful at nearby Agency at 5 p.m. today.

The Dinner Bell restaurant is in a low area, where the river bends around the town. Water depth there was estimated at six feet or more.

Heavy Rains Slacken And Waters Drop

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Floods in Northwest Missouri and North east Kansas began receding today as the area got a respite from heavy rain.

Less than an inch of rain was reported from Monday night's thunderstorms in most of the flood zone.

Small streams in the southern two-thirds of Iowa were running high. Storms with strong winds damaged buildings and disrupted utility service in several Iowa towns Monday.

The North Grand River in Missouri was expected to crest at Summer near its mouth this morning about six feet above flood stage.

The Platte River was high from Rosendale to its mouth.

At Agency, where water was five feet deep in the business district Monday, a crest passed Monday night about seven feet above flood stage. Residents began cleaning up—a task they've experienced dozens of times.

Only puddles remained in Smithville, where the little Platte swept through the town Monday.

The Missouri River remained tractable—near or a little above bank level in Kansas City and St. Joseph.

In northeast Kansas the Tuttle Creek dam blocked floods from tributary streams. The reservoir was receiving 25,700 cubic feet per second and discharged only 400 cubic feet.

A tornado dipped low enough over St. Joseph late Monday to uproot big trees and snap utility wires along a 10 to 12-block path in the center of town. Another twister destroyed a barn and tool shed on the Mansford Daniels farm 12 miles east of St. Joseph.

Congressional Cigarette Probe Opens In Row

WASHINGTON (AP)—A broad congressional investigation into cigarettes opened today with a row over who, if anybody, should police smoking.

The first witness, Sen. Maurice B. Neuberger, came before the House Commerce Committee with a plea to let the Federal Trade Commission go ahead with its plans to require that cigarette containers have a health warning.

First, she asked Congress to "do nothing which would obstruct or impede the implementation" of the FTC program or a public health service plan for mass research and education on smoking.

Mrs. Neuberger also anticipated the testimony of a witness scheduled to follow her, Surgeon General Luther H. Terry. She said Terry would testify that the Department of Health, Education and Welfare "has now determined that HEW should be given legislative authority to regulate cigarette package labeling."

Following the showing of the film, Mrs. D. H. Robinson, wife of Dr. Robinson who is president of the local chapter, told of the work being done in the Sedalia area for those who are crippled with muscular diseases. The services which the local chapter provides includes furnishing of wheel chairs, leg and back braces, lifts, therapy treatments and transportation. Regional Jails Are Called For

The chairman of the special joint committee on correctional institutions said yesterday he planned to ask the 1965 Legislature for a law establishing regional jails to supplant old and ill-kept county jails.

Peter J. J. Rabbitt (D-St. Louis County), chairman, said he expected he might get opposition from some small county politicians, but he thought the change was needed since many county jails are in poor repair and are poorly kept.

Rabbitt made the remark in his committee's tour of Algoa intermediate reformatory. He said the reformatory appeared to be in pretty good condition, but the main prison has produced some major problems.

Testify Against Cut In Military Aid Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Against a background of Communist pressures in Southeast Asia, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor testified today against any cuts in the $1,055,000,000 military aid program.

They described it as a rock-bottom figure in their appearance before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in support of the military assistance portion of the $3.5-billion foreign aid authorization bill. The bill passed the House last week.

Officers said the trio was also implicated in the theft of two tires and wheels valued at about $19 from a junk car at McCown's Auto Salvage yard on North Grand Avenue.

The Barklages and Townsend were held in the Pettis County jail until later Monday evening when they were released on $1,000 bonds signed by relatives. The bonds are returnable Thursday, June 25, when they are scheduled for arraignment in Magistrate Court before Judge Frank Armstrong.

The continuation was given, however, on condition that the Gray youth make his home with a relative, Glendene Gray, in Tucson, Ariz., and that a $1,000 appearance bond be executed.

Gray's parole came under scrutiny early in May after the youth admitted he entered another trailer home in Missile Manor in search of some letters he had written a former girl friend. Monday LeDaux's application for parole was sustained by the court on recommendation of the parole officer and Prosecuting Attorney J. R. Fritz. LeDaux was required to post a $1,000 parole bond.

He had been free on bond since his application for parole in November.

Police Reports

Police said Tuesday that the arrest of three teenage boys, one 18 and two 17, had cleared up the recent theft of some 150 gallons of gasoline from National Guard military vehicles parked on the Missouri State Fairgrounds.

The gasoline was removed by use of a siphon, the sergeant said. The youths told police, however, they took only 10 to 15 gallons of the fuel, Franklin reported, as opposed to the 150 gallons said to be missing.

as ambassador, and U. Alexis Johnson as deputy ambassador, after returning from his Western trip last weekend.

Taylor, administration officials said, met the President's requirement for a Lodge successor who was fully informed on all Southeast Asian issues, past and future strategy in South Viet Nam, and U.S. policies for meeting the Communist challenge in that part of the world.

With presidential politics dominating the domestic scene between now and November, Johnson was also represented as wanting a man of "unassailable standing," and one whose reputation would be as high in South Viet Nam as Lodge's has been.

Those were described authoritatively as the principal reasons why Taylor was given the assignment by Johnson, in spite of the fact that he already held one of the nation's most critical positions as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

In announcing the changes in Saigon, Johnson took occasion to make some general policy pronouncements of Southeast Asia.

Johnson again expressed this country's determination to help South Viet Nam resist Communist aggression and to continue flights over Laos when ever representatives of the International Control Commission are barred from inspecting the area.

The news conference was a hurriedly set up affair—one of the quickies such as Johnson has held before.

In addition to announcing the big changes in South Viet Nam and the Pentagon, Johnson told the reporters:

—The United States and the Soviet Union have entered into an agreement for scientific cooperation on methods of desalting sea water.

He expressed the hope that this could lead to important developments in this field.

Lodge's letter of resignation was dated June 19 and Johnson's letter of acceptance with regret was dated today.

Lodge said he was resigning "entirely for personal reasons" and the tone of his letter indicated no policy disagreements was involved.

Johnson said the country had been fortunate to have had Lodge's dedicated service in the delicate South Viet Nam post.

And, he said, he was fortunate in getting Taylor and Johnson to go to Viet Nam.

In this connection, Johnson commented that Taylor has displayed outstanding qualities of leadership in the past, dedication to democracy and knowledge of the ways of Communist subversion and aggression.

Deputy ambassador Johnson will go to South Viet Nam and head up the U.S. mission until Taylor arrives.

Replying to questions, the President said he did not know Lodge's future plans, but that he probably would be home by the end of the week. He said newsmen could ask Lodge that question.

Eastern Push By Scranton For Delegates

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton flew into Delaware today on the first leg of his second full week of delegate hunting in support of his bid for the Republican presidential nomination.

After going from Wilmington airport into the city, he went into closed session with Delaware's delegates, alternates and political leaders.

At the airport, Scranton and his wife, Mary, were met by a crowd of about 200—a third of them boosters of the front runner for the nomination, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona—and by his daughter, Susan, 18, and sons, William, 16, and Joseph, 14. A third son, Peter, 10, remained in Harrisburg.

Scranton was scheduled to carry his campaign from Delaware into New Jersey later today.

With a combined delegate strength of 52 votes, the two states were first on a list of regions to be visited by Scranton during his second full week of an 11th-hour bid to overtake and surpass the front runner for the nomination, U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona.

After a morning appearance in Wilmington, Del., Scranton was to cap the day by giving the principal address at a Newark, N.J., $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner.

Wednesday Scranton will visit Charleston, W.Va., and Miami, Fla. His staff was working on appearances in Ohio and Michigan later in the week.

The current Associated Press delegate poll shows that in Delaware all 12 delegates are committed to favorite son Sen. John J. Williams. Scranton's people believe they can capture at least 7 of those votes, if released by Williams.

The figures for New Jersey showed 8 for Goldwater, 2 for former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, 1 for New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, 4 for Scranton and 25 uncommitted. In the AP poll Goldwater's total indicated delegate support would give him more than enough for the nomination — if the support held up through the first ballot at the Republican National Convention in San Francisco.

Scranton said during his 4,000-mile flying tour of five mid-western states last week that his objective was to visit every delegation he could that was not legally bound to Goldwater.

Scranton told a news conference Monday that results of his first tour in the Midwest were "better than I expected."

Asked to specify states from which he had received favorable reports, Scranton named North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas and Missouri.

Scranton was asked about published reports that some top Republicans were aiding his campaign privately. He replied that he had been in contact with many party leaders, including two former national chairmen, Leonard W. Hall and Meade Alcorn, before and after he decided to run, but made no direct references as to whether they were supporting his bid.

An Underprivileged Project

Political party conventions and the primary election are supposed to stimulate more conversational activity and news comment these days than any other subject.

However, when mention was made last week of the possibility the Old Covered Bridge over Flat Creek might become a victim of road improvement, the response to this was more terrific in terms of telephone calls and personal contacts.

Very definitely Pettis countians want the Covered Bridge preserved even if the road builders someday may have to by-pass it and build another bridge downstream.

The structure is a landmark, one of a few left in Missouri. No one knows how many tourists drive out Ingram avenue and the Water Works road to see it. One resident reports he has answered many inquiries by motorists asking if they are on the right road to the Covered Bridge.

Some persons call attention to the leaky roof and the need for painting the structure; others suggest the Twelve Mile Road district erect more positive warning signs some distance from the approaches, especially for north bound traffic coming down the hill toward the one-lane bridge.

Another person says that if the road district or county can't spare the money for preservation work, such as some new timbers, paint and a roof, that a public campaign be started to raise the money for that purpose.

Still another person calls to mention that this would be a worthwhile project for the Civic Clubs' Council to undertake if they want to do something to aid an underprivileged subject.

While some of this talk may sound facetious, nevertheless there is the serious aspect of keeping the bridge in repair for old times' sake and for the edification of later generations who may never see a Covered Bridge unless they drive to Flat Creek in Pettis county on the old Water Works Road.

Demonstrations Could Hurt Johnson

By JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON — Passage of the historic Civil Rights Bill has not appeased militant Negro leaders. They are going ahead with the drives and demonstrations they had planned for the long, hot summer ahead.

This could produce some ugly incidents, plus repercussions which could hurt the election chances of President Johnson, whom most Negroes want to keep in the White House.

The worst trouble is expected in Mississippi where both sides are arming for a confrontation that could explode into racial war.

On one hand, the militant white organization, Americans for the Preservation of the White Race, is forming guerrilla units which have already started to carry out acts of terrorism against Negroes.

On the other hand the student non-violent coordinating committee is bringing hundreds of students into Mississippi this summer to conduct freedom schools and defy the wrath of the white terrorists.

The invading students, both white and black, are fully prepared to be martyrs. Not only the students but their parents have been given indoctrination courses, warning that the young volunteers can expect beatings and bombings, injury and imprisonment.

They have been instructed never to venture out alone in Mississippi, not to expect any protection from local authorities, and parents have been advised to be ready with bail money.

Yet few of these young people are turning back. At an indoctrination meeting in New York City, only one distraught father protested: "You are using these young people as guinea pigs!"

Several other parents jumped up to say they were proud their sons and daughters had the courage to back up their convictions.

Helping Your Enemy

Meanwhile, the continuing demonstrations in the face of the Civil Rights victory on Capitol Hill are producing some interesting ironies.

Irony No. 1—Dozens of Negro Republicans have served notice on party leaders that they won't support Senator Barry Goldwater if he wins the nomination. They predict

As a result the Central Committee has handed down a new and necessary stern edict: Hereafter, the girls cannot go to the boys' dormitories for any reason—not even to borrow a quire of paper; and the boys cannot go to the girls' dormitories even if they are flunking math and need tutorial help. Supreme Court Ends a Busy Session

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court, undeterred by criticism that it is pushing too far too fast and usurping power, has finished another jammed year deciding cases from civil rights and communism to reapportionment.

It continued to assert its concern for civil liberties—protection of the individual from the power of the state. It handled labor problems and many cases which may seem minor to the general public but took time, work and thought.

Near the end of last year's term the court blew up a storm by banning any required reading of the Bible and the Lord's Prayer in public schools. Attempts were made in Congress this year to undo that decision.

But these attempts — to produce a constitutional amendment permitting the reading of the prayer and the Bible — have failed so far and will probably fail totally.

Again this year, one week before it finished up Monday, the court gave perhaps its most far-reaching opinion in years, one which will surely shake the foundations of the old political machines as they haven't been in generations.

This ruling — it may affect practically all 50 states — instructed them to overhaul their legislatures by reapportioning their election districts more equally by population to carry out this philosophy: "one voter, one vote."

The court said the seats in both houses of state legislatures must be reapportioned to get away from the present, ancient districting in which a relatively small number of people in one district can elect one legislator while four times as many squeezed into a single district elsewhere can elect only one.

Earlier this year the court said similar reapportionment must be worked out by the states in electing representatives to Congress. This does not touch the arrangement for senators which is based on the Constitution and is unrelated to population: each state is entitled to two senators elected by the whole state.

The court began to move into this problem of reapportionment in 1962, but this year's actions were the climax.

The court made a ruling which affected Communists favorably. But it was in effect an expression of the court's concern that individuals be protected by the Fifth Amendment's guarantee that no one shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law.

In pursuance of this the court ruled unconstitutional a section of the Subversive Activities Control Act that denies passports to members of officially designated Communist organizations.

Two weeks ago the Communist party gained another round in its 14-year-old legal battle against registering as an instrument of world Communism.

The court refused to review, and thus let stand, a lower U.S. court decision of last Dec. 17 which reversed on technical grounds a $120,000 fine against the party for failure to submit details of its membership and finances.

The court was loaded down with racial and civil rights problems this term.

The court overturned a series of trespass convictions against sit-in demonstrators; threw out the conviction of 65 Negro students arrested on breach of the peace charges in a 1960 racial demonstration; ruled against a Southern courtroom custom of addressing Negroes by their first names instead of as "Miss" or "Mr." or "Mrs."; let stand a lower court ruling that hospitals accepting federal funds for construction must desegregate their staffs and facilities; upheld a lower court decision declaring unconstitutional a Louisiana law regulating segregation of the races in public parks and recreation centers; and banned any requirement that candidates for public office be designated on ballots by race.

One of the most notable decisions of the year, or any year, was the court's ruling that the Fifth Amendment, which says a witness can't be forced to incriminate himself, applies to witnesses in state proceedings as well as federal.

The court added something else: If a state gives immunity to a witness from prosecution for testimony in which he admitted a crime, the federal government can't then use this testimony to prosecute him for a federal offense, and vice versa.

The court refused to interfere with a federal arbitration board ruling under which about 48,000 jobs of railroad workers eventually could be eliminated. It let stand a lower court decision that federal law bars unions from disciplining members found guilty of slandering or libeling union officers. The court said states can enforce their own right-to-work laws.

There was a lot more than this in the term just ended.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM YOUR STATE CAPITOL

Consolidation Urged For Many State Funds

A little pamphlet published by the State Treasurer's office indicates that back in 1829 when Missouri was in its statehood infancy it was a requirement that state money had to be kept at the "seat of government."

Apparently this was taken quite literally because, the pamphlet details, the Treasurer kept the state's money in a barrel in a "little office on High Street" in Jefferson City. Today, instead of in a barrel, the money is kept more or less in lump sum in a bank for nearly all state accounts.

Recently, the Missouri Public Expenditures Survey, a privately supported group dedicated to better government practices, surveyed Missouri's present state banking methods and determined that 115 separate accounts are being maintained.

These funds range from the Hospital Construction Fund which had no funds on the first of May to the huge State Highway Department Fund which balances out at over $50,000,000.

The Survey compared current state practices to that of an old woman "placing money in small boxes to pay her bills — 60 cents in a box to pay the newspaper carrier, $3 in a box for dairy products, $6 in another box for laundry, $50 in another for groceries and so on."

This reasoning, according to State Treasurer Milton Carpenter, is erroneous.

While it is true, Carpenter acknowledged, that the state has over 100 separate funds for which money is available, there are no "idle" funds lying around. Instead, the Treasurer pointed out, all the money is kept in one central account with the various funds authorized to draw on so much of it and no more.

While a lot of the separate "funds" make little sense or are long out of use, changing the situation would not place more money at the state's disposal, Carpenter said. Instead, it would lessen the amount of bookkeeping in the Treasurer's office.

"I think it would be a good idea to eliminate the keeping of records of 115 funds," Carpenter stated, "consolidating where possible and eliminating where not needed."

Generally speaking, at the end of each biennium, surplus balances go into the General Revenue Fund except for such accounts as the State Highway Department Fund and the Conservation Commission Fund.

Even though a large scale consolidation effort were undertaken, it really wouldn't do much to lessen the work of the State Treasurer's office, Carpenter indicated. There still would have to be records kept as to how much each agency has left at its disposal.

And, Carpenter added, about all it would accomplish is the discontinuation of the monthly report required to be published by his office.

Highway Department Hiring Practices

In Missouri today, if a truck driver wants to operate a commercial vehicle over the state roadways for pay, he is required to have a chauffeur's license. But, if the State Highway Department sends a man out to operate heavy equipment in repair of the same roads, only an ordinary operator's license is needed.

A further check shows that when the Highway Department is hiring men who eventually will operate this heavy equipment no physical examination is conducted. Apparently the applicant is merely questioned as to any past disabilities.

And, some of the Highway Department personnel still driving the heavy road - building equipment range between 65 and 70 years of age. The department's retirement system is such that if a person is 60 and has 20 years of service he can retire. Otherwise, the retirement age is 65. But, a year-to-year extension can be granted up to age 70.

But, the department does have a fair accident record. With a working force of over 6,000 persons and 6,500 vehicles and pieces of equipment in constant use, last year the department was involved in only 552 accidents.

Of this total, 84 were the fault of highway motorists while 46 remain pending in determining fault. Of the remaining 422, many concerned rocks and beer cans thrown by mowing machines, breaking car windows. And, a spokesman said, a lot of these were in the less than $10 damage class which, because of their minor nature, are lumped together.

It has been suggested that the Highway Department consider requiring licenses for its own personnel that other truck drivers need.

Car Pools for Mothers?

by Susan Light,

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR MRS. LIGHT: I have just read the letter you received from "Just a Teacher" (who was disturbed by different parents), and I felt in my heart that this was one letter I had to answer. As a mother, I know a teacher has many problems to face every school day. Now please read about mine.

We live in a rural town, and our son attends a high school three miles from our home. Without any transportation, how can a mother attend school meetings? Believe me, I have even called a taxi and had it arrive at my home half an hour too late to go. Who wants to walk in after the meeting has started, and then have to call several cab companies before she can return home?

So to "Just a Teacher" (God bless you!) I'd like to say that mothers have their problems, too. I'm sure there are more mothers like me who would love nothing better than to spend an evening with their children's teachers. We would like to know you better, also. Is it possible that the teacher could arrange some sort of transportation pool to and from the school, and the mothers could share the cost? I'm almost certain that more mothers would attend these meetings and be very grateful to do so. JUST A MOTHER OF THREE VERY DEAR CHILDREN.

ANSWER: I'm sure that "Just a Teacher" was not referring to mothers like you when she spoke of apathetic parents. Obviously, your heart's in the right place—even though your home may not be. Why not write a note to the principal of your son's school, describing your problem and suggesting transportation pools for PTA meetings, parent-teacher conferences and other special school events? He will know the best person or committee to call on for prompt action. It appears to me that this would be a practical and worthwhile project for room mothers or the PTA membership committee. Perhaps you'll start something that will spread across the country and help other mothers in your position.

Democrat Pick-ups

OLDER SISTERS either adore their little brothers or despise them, and their feeling toward them is usually due to the kind of little brothers they have.

In one family a little boy was born a long time after the two girls and he was so spoiled and mean that the girls' lives were just miserable.

When he had aggravated one of them until she was really burning one day he said to her: "You don't like me, do you?"

"No, I don't," came the quick reply.

"You wish I'd die, don't you?" he asked.

So furious with him that she didn't care what happened to him at the moment she exclaimed real forcibly: "Yes, I do."

With a devilish little grin, as if he was going to live on just to torment her, he yelled at her: "But I'm not a-going to." H. L.

73 Members Attend Reunion Of 1939 Smith-Cotton Class

Seventy-three members of the 1939 graduating class of Smith-Cotton High School attended the banquet Saturday night at the Old Missouri Homestead. Husbands and wives of members swelled the attendance to 130 persons.

It was a happy affair with a get acquainted hour from 5:30 to 6:30 and after 25 years, they did feel as though they had to get acquainted again.

Invocation was given by Rev. A. E. Williams, after which the dinner was served smorgasbord style.

Words of welcome by the mistress of ceremonies, Mrs. Patricia (Poundstone) Hill, Dayton, Ohio, opened the program, after which there was the introduction of guests.

Roll call of class members was by Joe Long and the group singing of "In the City of Sedalia" was led by Dr. Robert Wild, Riverside, Calif.

A memorial to deceased members was given by Rev. A. E. Williams. The deceased members were: George L. Ethridge, Floyd E. Hall, David Howard Henderson, Emma Lovine Hull, Grace King, William A. Pate and Frances Starr.

Prizes were given to the following: Mrs. Doris Dean (Sullivan) Cole, who came the greatest distance from Pendleton, Ore. The member with the largest family was Mrs. Alberta (Todd) Tschuor who has ten children; Harry H. Moore, Kansas City, received the prize for the youngest child, a three week old son.

All class members attending received an exact reproduction of the 1939 Smith-Cotton annual and a copy of the program that listed the names of all living class members and their current addresses.

There were 207 members in the class, seven known dead and all but two of the other 200 were located.

Governors Told Midwest Being Left To Rear

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The rest of the nation is leaving the six-state area of Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Arkansas behind economically, the governors and representatives of those states were warned Monday.

They attended a governors conference here called by Gov. John M. Dalton of Missouri. The principal speaker was Dr. Charles Kimball, president of the Midwest Research Institute of Kansas City.

Their states, Kimball told the governors, have lost an aggregate of 1,113,000 in population, are down 20 per cent below the national average in family income and showed an increase in jobs from 1950 to 1960 of only 2.3 per cent against 14.5 per cent nationally.

"Our position continues to decline," Dr. Kimball said, "and will continue to do so until we find some way to reverse the situation. In relative terms, we are losing ground."

He suggested that perhaps the point to start the reversal is in utilizing the area's brains.

"If the states in the Midwest will recognize the knowledge gap," he said, "and accept the economic value of brainpower, we can begin here on unconventional approach to economic development."

Dr. Kimball said the area had the lowest ratio of scientists of any region in the country, largely because it has been exporting talented personnel at its own expense to other, better-paying sections.

Negro Lawyer Hired By Big Manufacturer

NEW YORK (AP) — Samuel R. Pierce Jr., a Negro lawyer, has been elected a director of U.S. Industries, Inc., a manufacturing company with sales at about $120 million a year.

His law partner, Theodore W. Kheel, said Monday Pierce is the first Negro to have a policymaking position in a large American corporation doing business internationally.

"And not because he's a Negro, but because he's qualified," Kheel said. "U.S. Industries has no Negro business. Sam's presence will not make a nickel's worth of business for them."

Miss Juanita Elizabeth Thomas Weds Mr. Charles Arthur Vogel

Miss Juanita Elizabeth Thomas and Mr. Charles Arthur Vogel, exchanged nuptial vows in a four o'clock Saturday afternoon ceremony June 6 at First and Calvary Presbyterian Church, Springfield.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Morris Thomas, Sr., Springfield, and the granddaughter of Mrs. Jewell Harter Thomas, 401 Dal-Whi-Mo Court, who was a wedding guest. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Vogel, Springfield.

The Rev. Edward James Christian, Kansas City, and Dr. William Everheart, performed the double ring ceremony in a setting centered by the communion table.

Glowing tapers in candelabra, and white floral arrangements, interspersed with greenery completed the setting. White satin bows marked family pews.

Mrs. Glenn Davis played organ selections and accompanied Mrs. E. M. Powell, who played "Adoration" as a violin solo, as members of the families were escorted to their pews. Mrs. Davis played for Mr. Stephen Emanuel as he sang "I Love Thee" and "Because" preceding the ceremony, and "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the service.

Mr. Richard Combs, Kansas City, and Mr. Larry Oliver, Dallas, Tex., lighted tapers. Lt. James Morris Thomas, Jr., Biloxi, Miss., and Mr. Allen McCoy pulled back the aisle cloth.

Presented at the altar by her father, the bride chose a formal wedding gown of French peau de soie. The slender bodice had a modified Queen Anne neckline, styled to a notched V with a slender instep-length skirt. The back of the bodice was closed with self-covered buttons, as were the long tapered sleeves. The cathedral train had wide, deep pleats, giving a panned effect and was caught at the back with a slightly looped bustle. Accenting the slender waist was a wide, satin girdle, hand-embroidered in delicate sprays of pearls. The points of the sleeves were accented with similar designs.

The bride's cathedral veil of French silk illusion was fastened to an open pillbox crown of French peau de soie with the same hand-embroidered sprays of pearls. Her only jewelry was a gold cross centered with a single diamond, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid, and beaded white satin leaves, tied with cut satin ribbons.

Miss Gayle Elaine Thomas attended her sister as maid of honor. Mrs. James Morris Thomas, Jr., Biloxi, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jenny Nusch, Mountain Home, Ark., and Miss Ann Hughes, Grandview.

Miss Thomas wore a gown of pure silk in pale mimosa yellow. Her wedding ring circlet had caught a pale yellow veil. Her satin pumps were dyed to match and her Colonial nosegay was of yellow Majestic daisies with background and streamers of moss green satin. Bridesmaid and matron of honor dresses were like those of the maid of honor in color and design, as were their bouquets.

Mr. Vogel chose his brother, David Holt Vogel, as best man. Ushers and groomsmen were Mr. Gary Lynn Thomas and Lt. James Morris, Jr., brothers of the bride, and Mr. Richard Combs, Mr. Larry Oliver and Mr. Allen McCoy.

Miss Susan Combs was flower girl. She wore a full skirted dress of pale yellow organza and white patent slippers. She carried a white basket of yellow and white Majestic daisies tied with white ribbons.

The bride's mother wore a sheath of aqua silk organza over taffeta, matching accessories, elbow length white gloves and a white orchid. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a two piece dress of pale pink Chantilly lace over silk shantung. Her accessories matched and her corsage was a single white orchid.

Following the ceremony, guests were greeted by the wedding party at a reception in the church dining room.

Mrs. Cliff House and Miss Mary Ann Schopp presided at the guest book.

The bride's serving table was skirted with white nylon net bound in wide white satin over taffeta, to set the all-white table theme, which included a four tiered wedding cake decorated with white roses. A white bow and sugar beads highlighted the bridal tier. Tall, white tapers burned in triple-branched silver candelabra on either side of the bride's bouquet. Pale green punch was served from a large silver bowl set upon a tray. Garlands of pale greenery surrounded the base of the cake.

Mrs. Raymond E. Krebs and Mrs. Max Ward were assisted at the reception by Mrs. House and Misses Schopp, Marilyn Krebs, Janice Powell and Marilyn Kessinger.

Mrs. Art Frye, Blue Springs, served punch. Cake was served

YOUR EYES AND VISUAL FUNCTIONS

Our national holiday which commemorates the founding of the United States is soon to be celebrated by a patriotic and grateful people. It will be a pleasant and enjoyable day for most of our citizens, but for many it will be a day of calamity and tragic consequences.

Foremost among the accidents which bring sorrow and lifelong handicaps will be automobile accidents and fireworks.

Many traffic accidents can be avoided if the drivers use care and precaution. One preventive step which is at long last getting the attention it should have is the driver's vision. Does he see well enough to be a safe driver?

The driver being licensed for the first time must pass a visual screening test, and the driver who neglects to renew his license in time must also take the vision tests. How about the holder of a driver's license who has never been required to have his vision tested? In the interest of his own and the safety of others he should have his eyes examined every year or two.

The Missouri Optometric Association also calls attention to another common cause of Fourth of July accidents. Fireworks are a popular and glorious means of celebrating but it must be kept in mind that they are dangerous and destructive as well. Many children can be spared the awful handicap of loss of sight or worse by adult supervision when fireworks are being exploded.

Poverty Bill Push Clouds Civil Rights

WASHINGTON (AP) — The prospect of final congressional action on the civil rights bill within 10 days was clouded slightly today.

President Johnson reportedly has told House Democratic leaders he wants his top - priority poverty bill passed before the House adjourns for the Republican presidential convention.

This could clash with a pre-convention recess the Republicans have been counting on. Their platform committee meets in San Francisco the week before the convention starts July 13, and many congressmen are on it. Others want to testify.

Braves Drop 7th Straight; Yankees Dump Chisox 6-5

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer

"The show of confidence will reflect on the play of our ball club—no doubt about it," said Manager Bobby Bragan after he received a new contract from Milwaukee.

If the Braves' first game under Bragan and his new contract is an example of what he meant, the reflection is more weird than you see in a fun-house mirror.

Two hours after Bragan accepted the written vote of confidence Monday, the Braves dropped their seventh straight game, 10-9, to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

True, the Braves exploded for 15 hits, including five home runs, but they still couldn't erupt from the slump that has dumped them into ninth place in the National League, their worst position in the standings since they moved to Milwaukee 12 years ago.

In the American League, the New York Yankees continued their mastery over Chicago, dumping the White Sox 6-5. The Yankees had beaten the White Sox nine previous times without a defeat this season. In the only other AL contests, Los Angeles downed Washington 5-2, and Cleveland and Minnesota battled to an 8-8 tie in a game ended by rain in the 11th inning.

San Francisco whipped Cincinnati 6-2 in the other National League game.

Milwaukee led 5-3 until the Dodgers rallied for six runs in the seventh inning. Wally Moon ignited the burst with a pinch double and Dick Tracewski ended it with a two-run single. Tracewski singled in two other runs, the one in the ninth proving to be the winning tally.

Lee Maye, Joe Torre and Gene Oliver clouted two-run homers for the Braves while Hank Aaron and Denis Menke hit solo blasts.

The Yankees survived Chicago's three-run surge in the ninth for their fifth consecutive triumph. Steve Hamilton scattered six hits through eight innings. Hal Reniff started the ninth, and the White Sox quickly loaded the bases and scored one run.

Bill Stafford replaced Reniff and retired the side, although two more runs scored on force plays. Hamilton scored New York's last run in the eighth on Roger Maris' sacrifice fly.

Pinch hitter Willie Smith, a pitcher-outfielder, slashed a single in the seventh inning that broke a 2-2 tie and sent the Angels on to their sixth straight victory. The hit was the seventh for Smith in 13 pinch-hitting appearances. Mike Brumley collected three hits and an RBI for the Senators.

Larry Brown homered in the eighth for the Indians, sending their game with the Twins into extra innings. Cleveland came to bat in the 11th when rain struck. After a delay of an hour the game was called.

Harmon Killebrew and Bob Allison each drove in three runs for the Twins with Allison hitting his 17th homer with one aboard.

Willie McCovey smashed a grand-slam homer for the Giants in the sixth after dropping a fly ball for a two-run error in the fifth. Cincinnati starter John Tsitouris had a no-hitter until the sixth, when pinch hitter Chuck Hiller singled.

At Convention Hall Tonight

Professional Wrestling Winds Up Indoor Schedule

Professional wrestling winds up its indoor schedule tonight at Convention Hall with a four-event program that could produce some of the fiercest action of the season.

It will be young Harley Race, Sonny Myers and five hot-tempered girl grapplers have anything to do with it.

Myers will try to check a prestige bid by the rugged Race, a 250-pounder who figures to gain added recognition should he beat the Missouri marvel. It may develop into a showdown of Myers' sleeper hold and Race's power offense.

The five girls will all have a hand in one event—a wrestle royal—that should be action filled. Each will put up $100 with the survivor to take it all. Listed for that event are Kathy Starr, Jean Antone, Betty Nickoli, Jessica Rogers and Anne Reagan.

It will take a flip over the top rope to be eliminated, so it's possible the action will resemble something akin to a gang war when the girls have at it. The rule book will be left at the door and virtually anything will be allowed.

There'll also be two separate clashes, with the scrappy Rogers tangling with Reagan, Starr going opposite Antone.

Tonight's starting time is 8:15.

Rain Permitting, Missouri Golf Tourney Opens

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Weather permitting, the Missouri amateur men's golf tournament opens today. Recent rains will add distance to the 6,400-yard Indian Hills layout for a field that includes a flock of former champions.

Defending champion Jim Colbert of Kansas City isn't concerned with the conditions. He doesn't have to qualify and chose not to play the medal round.

Tourney officials were confident Monday night's storm wouldn't delay the opening. Brian Boggett, pro at Indian Hills, said:

"The course drains so well it would have to rain all night to create a problem."

Former champions on hand include Jimmy Jackson, Jim Tom Blair and three-time winner Bob Cochran, all of St. Louis; Jack House of Kansas City and Bill Stewart of Springfield.

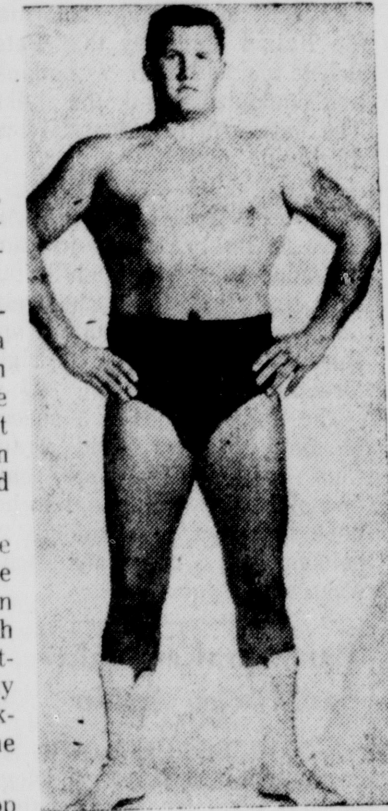

They will find Colbert sharp. Competing for Kansas State, Colbert was runnerup in the NCAA tournament at Colorado Springs last week. He arrived in time to play practice rounds Sunday and Monday.

The field of 211 will be pared to 100 after 18 holes today. The low 63 shooters around another 18 holes Wednesday will join Colbert in match play Thursday.

Par is 35-35-70 and if anyone trimmed it in practice Monday, their secret was well kept.

HARLEY RACE

Vote Of Confidence To Manager

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves are full of surprises off the field as well as on it.

Gripped in a seven-game losing streak which has plunged the club into ninth place, the Braves gave Manager Bobby Bragan a vote of confidence Monday with a new contract extending through the 1965 season.

Bragan told a news conference "the show of confidence will reflect on the play of our ball club—no doubt about it." He was right to a degree.

Two hours later the Braves went on a 15-hit spree, including five homers. That was something unusual. The final result wasn't. The Los Angeles Dodgers won the slugfest 10-9.

In reply to talk that Bragan's job was in jeopardy because of the Braves' worst position in the standings in 12 years in Milwaukee, President John McHale and board chairman Bill Bartholomay decided to add a year to the manager's contract.

"It is important that during this slump period we recognize that Bobby Bragan has put great effort into the building of this club and we are confident that his work will pay off this year and in future years," McHale said.

"We believe we have a good manager and don't want to back away from him when we're in trouble."

"It's beautiful, just beautiful," Bragan said. "This is one of the happiest occasions of my career. My relationship with the Braves is one of the greatest in baseball."

A former major league infielder, the 46-year-old Bragan served terms as manager of Pittsburgh and Cleveland. He was hired by the Braves after Birdie Tebbetts quit to go to Cleveland following the 1962 season.

signed their 1964 contracts, owner Coach George Halas announced today.

Driver to Surgery

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—

Stock car driver Glenn (Fireball) Roberts of Daytona Beach, Fla., was to undergo surgery today for severe burns he received in the world 600-mile race May 24.

Surgeons were to remove tissue killed by second and third-degree burns over about 70 per cent of his body. A doctor's report said skin grafting will be the next step "in about two weeks."

Versailles Hosts Annual Golf Tourney

This weekend will be a busy one around the Versailles Rolling Hills golf course when the Eighth Annual Rolling Hills Open will be played. The tournament is considered one of the largest and finest sand green tournaments in the state.

It is hoped the entry list will become a record this Saturday and Sunday and is anticipated it will compare with the 1963 tournament when 33 Missouri towns were represented by 177 golfers, included in which were representation from three states.

Francis Hagen, Columbia, two-time winner of the tournament, in 1959 and again in 1963, has already sent in his entry to be on hand to defend his title.

Previous winners of the tournament were: Pete Diehl, Booneville, the first winner in 1957; Harold Coleman, St. Louis, 1958; Hagen, 1959; Perry Coy, Jefferson City, 1960; Ray Henges, Jefferson City, 1961; Dexter Slagle, Versailles, 1962 and Hagen in 1963.

It is a 27-hole tournament with $700 in prizes and awards to be offered to the various winners, there being eight prizes in each flight.

Qualifying rounds are now being played, and must be played prior to Sunday. Play will be in five flights.

Any golfers playing the 27-holes on Sunday must tee off before 8 a. m.

The Rolling Hills Club invites guests to enjoy the club facilities, especially the swimming pool.

Jim Hunter is the chairman of the tournament.

Successful Weekend For Merchants

The Sedalia Merchants blasted the Kansas City All-Stars 20-0 Park diamond. Skip Schulz went the entire seven innings for the Merchants, allowing only one hit and fanning 12. Schultz has now won two and lost none and has an ERA of 1.12.

Bill Hill once again led the Merchants, hitting with his fourth home run of the season and having two doubles for three times at bat. Charley Newman, Tim Morgan and Jim Fall had two hits each. Bill Dey and Bones Morgan scored seven runs between them with hustling base running.

Marshall Bryan starred on defense at third base. Bones Morgan turned in another top performance at shortstop.

Fulton down the Sedalia Merchants the second straight time Saturday night 11-3 on Fulton's diamond. Fulton scored six runs in the first two innings. Fulton managed 15 hits while the Merchants were only to come up with 10. Only three errors were made in the game with two of the three being made by Sedalia.

Bill Hill led the Merchants' hitting with three for four and Charley Newman went two for four. McDannal and Kuhlman led the Fulton attack with three hits apiece. Ray Queet went the entire game for Fulton, allowing three runs on ten hits, fanning five and walking none. Jim Fall started the game for Sedalia, but after two innings and allowing nine runs on six hits, fanning one and walking four, was replaced by Tim Morgan, who finished the game, allowing two runs on nine hits, fanning one and walking two.

The Merchants will meet Jefferson City at Jefferson City Tuesday night. The team will leave from Broadway Lanes at 5:45 p. m.

Mays Leads Voting

Giants, Cards Each Place 2 On NL All-Star Lineup

NEW YORK (AP)—Wonderful Willie Mays attracted the most votes as the San Francisco Giants and St. Louis Cardinals each placed two men on the National League All-Star team's starting line-up for the July 7 dream game with the American League at Shea Stadium in New York.

Mays, the Giants' brilliant center fielder, along with third baseman Ken Boyer and shortstop Dick Groat, were the only repeaters from 1963 in the voting of 270 players, coaches and managers. First baseman Orlando Cepeda was the other Giant selection on this year's starting team.

Commissioner Ford Frick, whose office conducted the balloting, said the complete squads, exclusive of the pitchers, will be announced next week.

The pitchers, who are selected by the All-Star managers, Al Lopez of the American League and Walt Alston of the Los Angeles Dodgers, will be announced Thursday, July 2.

Surprisingly, the National League starting line-up will not contain a single member of the league - leading Philadelphia Phillies, who did not place a man even on the runner-up list.

In addition to the four Giants and Cards, there were single representatives from the Chicago Cubs, Pittsburgh Pirates, Milwaukee Braves and New York Mets.

The NL's power packed lineup included Ron Hunt of the Mets at second base, Roberto Clemente of the Pirates in right field, league-leading hitter Billy Williams of the Cubs in left, and the Braves' Joe Torre behind the plate.

In all, little fault can be found with the starting squad. The only possible objection would be over the by-passing of Maury Wills of the Dodgers, who leads the league in stolen bases and whose .285 batting average through last Sunday is the highest among the shortstops. Wills finished third in the voting.

Mays, who boasts a .417 batting average in 14 All-Star games, missed by one getting a unanimous vote. He received 240 out of a possible 241 votes. Players are not permitted to vote for teammates. Curt Flood of the Cards, was runner-up with 17 votes.

Williams, batting at .373 after flirting with the magic 400 mark nearly all season, was the second highest vote-getter. He drew 237 votes to 17 for runner-up Will Stargell of the Pirates.

The closest race was for the shortstop berth. Groat squeaked by Leo Cardenas of Cincinnati, by five votes, 92 to 87. Boyer won by a surprisingly large margin over Ron Santo of the Cubs for third base honors, 172 votes to 84.

Last year, the entire Cardinal infield of Bill White, Julian Javier, Groat and Boyer, were in the National League's starting lineup.

This year, White finished a poor second to Cepeda, 75 votes to 172. Hunt, the Mets' fine sophomore, also got 172 votes to easily win second base honors over runner-up Bill Mazeroski of Pittsburgh, who had 52 votes.

Torre easily gained the catcher's berth with 203 votes to 24 for Cincinnati's John Edwards. An eyebrow raiser was Clemente's wide spread—160 to 67—over Milwaukee's Henry Aaron for the right-field spot.

Aaron, a veteran of 13 All-Star games, was one of the five 1963 starters who did not repeat. Others, in addition to White and Javier, were catcher Ed Bailey of the Braves, and left fielder Tommy Davis of the Dodgers.

With the exception of Groat, who was hitting a rising .275 through Sunday's games, every starter was in the .300 class. Mays, at .359, was the league's leader in home runs with 22 and runs batted in with 53.

All starters, except pitchers, must play at least three innings, unless injured.

MY DODGE TRUCK WENT 105,000 MILES ON $11.15 WORTH OF REPLACEMENTS

"I've used nothing but Dodges since I started my trucking business in 1939. Of the five I own now, I'm proudest of the 1961 D500. I use it, and another D500, to haul livestock and grain to Cedar Rapids, and limestone and rock back. That D500 has a 361 cubic inch V8 that I think is the best truck engine ever built. In 105,000 miles of service, moving 8 to 13-ton gross loads, it's needed only one hydraulic tappet and a distributor shaft replaced. Oil consumption is now working out to a quart every 1,800 miles!" James D. Martens, Conroy, Iowa. Tappets and distributor shafts are among the hundreds of engine and drive train parts covered by the Dodge five-year or 50,000-mile warranty.* The warranty applies to the engine and drive train of all Perkins- and gasoline-powered Dodge trucks. The fact is, you can drive a Dodge truck more than twice as long as other makes and still have the engine and drive train covered by the manufacturer's warranty. Think that over. Then see your dependable Dodge truck dealer. He has many more good things to tell you. Among them are prices that are nose to nose with Ford's and Chevrolet's, and a liberal finance plan. Whether you buy or whether you lease, think of Dodge Job-Rated trucks first.

You can pay a dollar more... but can you taste the difference?

Unless you can taste snob appeal, we doubt it. We believe we make the finest possible bourbon at the fairest possible price. Of course, if you're bargain hunting, you can pay a dollar less... but is it worth it?

New Pressure Noted

Wholesale Price Stability Marks a Current Upswing

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Stability of wholesale prices — a rare thing during business expansions — has been a mark of the current upswing. But new pressures may be building up to tip the balance.

Already there have been considerable fluctuations in some commodities. Some prices have risen, particularly for industrial materials, because demand has caught up with supply. Others have been raised as a result of recent wage contracts. And more such negotiations are in the offing.

But so far, weakness in other commodities has kept the overall price index almost level.

The cost of living — or consumer price index — hasn't been so accommodating. It has held to a fairly steady if slow upward course, due mainly to advancing charges for services.

Since the present business upswing started early in 1961 the Bureau of Labor Statistics wholesale price index — based on the 1957-59 average as 100 — has moved between 99.5 and 101.2. It now is right in between, just slightly above 100. The consumer price index in April was 107.8, from the same base.

Safety Program, Demonstrations In Houstonia

Houstonia Extension Club met June 18 at the home of Mrs. Charles Wicker to hear a program, "Pesticides," given by Mrs. Norman Lancaster.

Cindy Wicker and Vicki Dawson demonstrated how to make a peach and banana fan salad. Marie Fischer demonstrated how to make Ozark pudding. Connie Fischer demonstrated how to make a proper cake mix cake.

Margaret Stockhurst showed how to pick up stitches in knitting and displayed sweaters she had made. Mary Lou Stockhurst showed how to make a pompon, and Linda Stockhurst demonstrated how to crochet a button.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Carl Kreisel, the vice-president, Mrs. Everett Blackburn, presided.

It was voted to give gifts to 4-H girls of Foods II and III. Mrs. Everett Blackburn appointed a by-laws committee composed of Mrs. Charles Wicker, Mrs. Bernard Dotson, Mrs. Carl Kreisel, Mrs. Wilbur Alexander and Mrs. Bill Wood.

It was voted that a nominating committee for next year's officers not be appointed.

A picnic for the 4-H'ers will be held Aug. 17, at Liberty Park in Sedalia.

A contributive luncheon was served at noon.

Roll call was answered with "How I Met My Husband."

A hostess gift was presented to Mrs. Wicker and secret pal gifts were received.

Mrs. Studer Speaks To Green Ridge Club

Mutual Improvement Club, of Green Ridge, held its annual June luncheon at Flat Creek Inn June 20. American home department planned the luncheon.

Mrs. H. Ashby Hite introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Mary Studer, Sedalia, who spoke about "Interior Decorating," stressing use of color.

Mrs. Forrest E. Calvert presided.

Guests, other than club members, were: Mrs. Sid Lusk, Mrs. Alvin Howe, Mrs. Elburn Chaney, Mrs. R. C. Hacker, Mrs. C. A. Wisdom, Mrs. Virgil Oglevie, Mrs. Beulah Anderson, of Green Ridge; Mrs. Mary Paul, Jefferson City; Mrs. Laura Stoddard, Sedalia; Mrs. Raymond Wasson, LaMonte; Mrs. Chester Sartin, Windsor; and Mrs. Studer.

Rosemary, a perennial evergreen shrub, belongs to the mint family.

Individual commodity price changes have been marked during the last three years, however.

Changes ranged from gains of 4.4 per cent for lumber and wood products and 4.3 per cent for tobacco and beverages to decreases of 3.6 per cent for chemicals and 4.8 per cent for fuels and power.

More recent price increases have been listed for various metals. Coal prices have risen at many mines after the latest wage increase.

In most previous periods of business expansion price changes have been much quicker and larger. This was particularly marked in the 1955-57 boom.

Since then, however, capacity to produce has become so large that it acted as a damper on wholesale price fluctuations. This was true during the last previous expansion period, 1958-60, although industrial wholesale prices did rise 3 per cent in that period. This was offset by a drop of 15 per cent in the index for farm products.

In the current expansion, abundant capacity to produce also has acted as a brake on commodity prices. This surplus of facilities has kept competition keen in many commodity markets.

NEW YORK (AP)—The way most Americans are handling their pocketbooks these days is pleasing both the merchants and the economic score keepers. That doesn't always happen.

Revised government figures show that consumers are spending more—which gratifies the merchants and the dealers—but not too much more—which reassures the statisticians and the planners.

This is a lot different from what many were predicting a while back.

At first some economic experts worried out loud lest Americans go on a buying binge when federal income tax rates were cut. February retail sales did make an unusually good showing, just ahead of final congressional action.

Early reports showed March retail sales down a bit and April's even slower. This worried those who feared the consumer wasn't going to come through nobly and help send the economy to new heights with his spending.

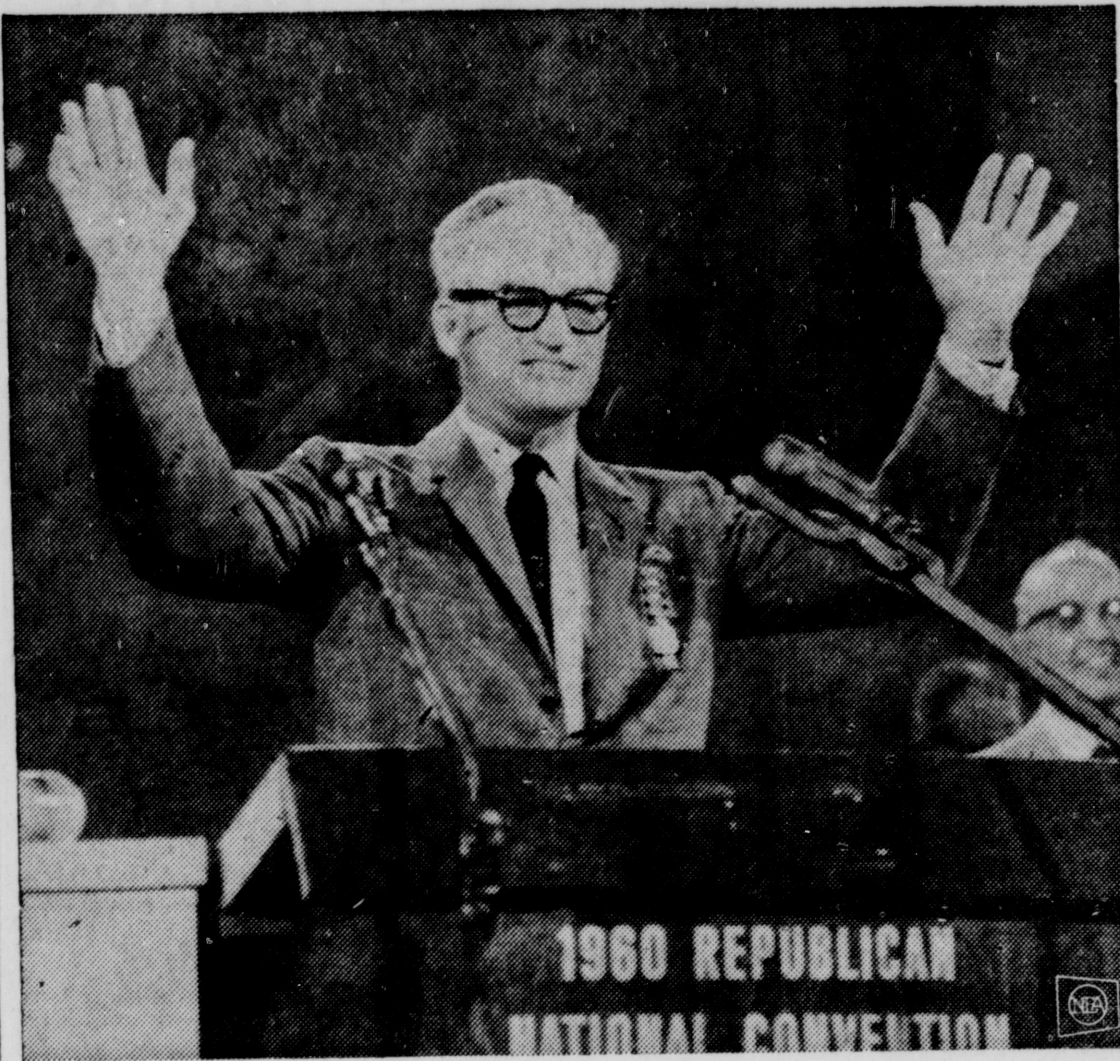

Now the Department of Commerce has revised its figures. It finds that April retail sales really went up instead of down. May figures climbed still higher to a record $21.7 billion. Latest preliminary reports show that in the last four weeks sales of both durable and nondurable goods rose 6 per cent above the like 1963 period.

The increase relieved the minds of the merchants, at least the lucky ones who shared in the gains they had been counting on. It also comforted the economic planners who want the tax cut to give the economy a nice boost.

Just as pleased are those who find the increased consumer spending well below the spurge level. No boom has developed, nor is one foreshadowed as yet.

Bankers also are keeping an eye on the trends in consumer debt. At Morgan Guaranty Trust Company, New York, it's noted that the total of such debt apparently increased less during the April and May advance in retail buying than it did in the first three months of the year. The bank thinks "this augurs well for continued retail strength as the year wears on," because it puts consumers in a good position to spend after making monthly installment payments.

This ability to spend still worries some, despite the consumer's performance so far. The economist of the Manufacturers Hanover Trust Company, New York, agrees that "the inflationary and anti-inflationary forces in the United States are well balanced at present." But he sees inflation as seemingly gaining ground.

I DREAMT I DWELT IN MARBLE HALLS—With visions of conventions past whirling in his head, Sen. Barry Goldwater, front-runner for the Republican presidential nomination would like very much to do a similar performance at the 1964 convention in San Francisco. Only he'd like the script changed to read: "I accept your nomination." Photo was taken at 1960 convention in Chicago.

Summer Invasion of Mississippi

Editor's Note — When civil rights leaders talk of a "long, hot summer," they don't always mean violent demonstrations. Here's a look at a quieter but no less determined struggle being waged in Mississippi. First of two parts

By AUSTIN SCOTT

NEW YORK (AP)—A summer invasion of Mississippi by nearly 1,000 civil rights workers is under way, despite warnings from that Southern state that it won't tolerate outside interference in its affairs.

Unpaid white and Negro volunteers are aiming an intricate, well-organized campaign at the Negro community as well as at whites, and at the Negro's mind as well as at his emotions.

The volunteers, most of them from colleges, have been told to prepare for a summer of hard work — and possibly time in Southern jails.

"We've asked each one to have someone in his home town ready to post $500 to $1,000 bail," said one spokesman for the movement.

The four civil rights groups behind this Mississippi Summer Project, are pushing three major drives centering around education, hygiene and home economics, and voter registration.

The project has been in the planning stage for months. Leaders say it will go ahead despite what they term "constant harassment" and regardless of a number of Mississippi laws newly passed to stop the drive.

Conceived by the Council of Federated Organizations, known as COFO in action, Miss., the project is being directed on the scene by Robert Moses, 29, a Negro and a former New Yorker who holds a degree from Harvard.

Money comes from the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee — SNCC — the Congress of Racial Equality, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and Dr. Martin Luther King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Mississippi has been picked as a target because many civil rights leaders say progress in this field has been "agonizingly slow" in the state.

Participants attend week-long orientation courses at Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio. Many will be teachers in the "freedom schools," aimed at high school age youngsters and run for about six weeks.

Students will get remedial instruction in basic educational skills, and be exposed to "cultural influences not normally available to them."

The object, COFO says, is to "implant habits of free thinking and ideas of how a free society works."

"There's such a closed, stifling atmosphere that these people haven't had a chance to

Good Old Days Replaced By Good New Days of Present

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Those good old days. Oh, those good old days!

Old-timers 60 years of age or more like to drop a tear in their sarsaparilla as they recall how much better and more romantic life was in their youth than it is now.

But was it really?

Life in America before World War I still had something of a pioneer quality, and hardship and discomfort were pretty much taken for granted.

Weather and work held people in thrall far more than they do now; leisure was more for the dead than the living.

When old-timers reminisce, they don't dwell on such points as:

Probably not half the homes in America had indoor plumbing.

Most homes were heated by pot-bellied stoves or balky coal furnaces, the ashes from which had to be lugged out with monotonous regularity.

People worked a 50- to 60-hour week.

When a rug had to be cleaned it was hunted on a line in the backyard and dust was spanked out with a beater.

You didn't ride on power mowers; you cut the grass with a sickle.

If you were wealthy enough to afford a car, you had to hand crank it to get the motor started. The roads were so bad you were lucky if you went 100 miles without a flat tire; if you did get a flat tire, you had to fix it yourself.

Most women had lost their beauty by the time they were 40; most men were considered old at 45.

Pensions were unheard of in most industries.

There were no electric washing machines. Wives had to souse the family's grimy duds in tubs, and launder them by hand or with a scrubbing brush on a ridged washboard.

Winters were long and cold; summers long and hot.

The kitchen held no gleaming refrigerator. The pan under the icebox had to be emptied daily.

Wood-burning stoves were used in rural areas, and somebody in the household had to chop the wood.

After a hard day spent at other chores, mothers had to darn, often by lamplight, the menfolks' socks.

In addition to all their other woes, women had to lace themselves into corsets so tightly they couldn't swallow a grape without feeling uncomfortable.

It took almost as many days to travel across the continent by train as it now does hours by jet plane. In a small town, any resident who had seen both Niagara Falls and the Grand Canyon was a celebrity. No banker was crazy enough to lend you money to make a vacation trip.

There were no drive-in theaters, no radio, no television, no hi-fi sets, no piped-in music, no canned dog food.

What do they mean "the good old days?" About all they had we don't have is a big foamy glass of nickel beer. And it's hardly worth turning the calendar back just for that.

The good old days have been replaced by the good new days — today and tomorrow.
